We are looking for passionate, innovative teachers to join our team from September 2024. We have a substantive Key Stage 1 teaching vacancy and a fixed-term, year-long Reception teaching vacancy. Subject / phase leadership areas are negotiable depending on the successful candidates' strengths and skills. We are looking for applicants who are:

- Open, honest and ready to learn whilst recognising that teaching is an ever evolving profession
- Committed to maintaining the highest levels of safeguarding at all times
- Ready to work as part of a dynamic, enthusiastic team
- Not afraid to make mistakes and learn from them
- Prepared to problem solve with a solutions-focussed mindset
- Committed to building healthy working habits to develop a long and happy career in education
- Passionate and knowledgeable about the world of education, particularly within Early Years and Key Stage 1
- Able to build strong relationships rooted in kindness, empathy and mutual respect
- Open to supportive challenge and critique whilst being ready to challenge and critique those around them in a professional and supportive way
- Aware of the underpinning challenges in education, both locally and nationally, and are proactive in tackling these
- Able to support with the ongoing development of our experience-led school curriculum with the understanding that that you are only a child once, so you might as well enjoy it!

We welcome both ECTs and more experienced teachers to apply, and we are open to discussion around part-time work and job sharing.

Our school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. An enhanced DBS disclosure is required for appointment to this post.

If you would like to apply for the post, then please download the application form and other documents from the advert and email the completed form to the email address below.
